

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 21-CR-527-JFH

KEVIN LYNN GREER,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is an unopposed motion to continue jury trial (“Motion”) filed by Defendant Kevin Lynn Greer (“Defendant”). Dkt. No. 95. The Motion states the United States of America (“Government”) does not oppose the requested continuance. Id. at 1. For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED.

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

Defendant requests additional time because he recently withdrew his plea following rejection of the parties’ plea agreement and, since the time of the entry of the plea, the case has changed hands in both the U.S. Attorney’s Office and the Federal Public Defender’s office. Dkt. No. 95 at 2-3. Neither current counsel were involved in the negotiations of the rejected plea agreement. Id. The current prosecutor re-produced discovery to the defense, which consists of approximately 2,400 pages, an expert report, and five video files. Id. at 3. Additionally, the FBI seized more than 100 hard drives during the investigation and FBI review of the items is ongoing. Id. Defendant states additional time for his current counsel to adequately prepare the case is necessary given the voluminous amount of materials to review as well as the need to research and investigate. Id. at 3-4. The Court finds Defendant has executed a speedy trial waiver, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 96. In addition to considering Defendant’s interests, the Court has considered the public’s interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public’s interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the unopposed motion to continue jury trial filed at Dkt. No. 95 is GRANTED. The jury trial set for November 6, 2023 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken. The following amended scheduling order is hereby entered:
